

Society for Liturgical Study

The Biennial Conference – Role and Ritual in Worship

23 to 25 August 2016

The Mirfield Liturgical Institute at the College of the Resurrection,
Mirfield, West Yorkshire, UK

The theme of the Society's conferences is to be Role and Ritual in worship, and is intended permit a wide-ranging exploration which could include any aspect of ritual and role: text, gesture and choreography, art and architecture as well as examination of presidential and non-presidential roles, congregational participation, leadership and authority.

In this context we are delighted that Bishop Michael Perham will be giving the key note address on 'The Bishop in the Liturgy'.

The Conference provides an excellent opportunity to meet others whose work is in the field or touching the study of worship and liturgy and to hear and discuss papers both from established scholars and those at an earlier stage of their liturgical research and teaching.

The Conference takes place at the College of the Resurrection, Mirfield, West Yorkshire. It begins on the Tuesday afternoon (arrival and registration from 2.30pm, and runs through to after lunch (1pm) on the Thursday. The General Meeting of the Society will also take place on the Wednesday and will be followed by the Conference Dinner.

Key Note Speaker

The Right Reverend Michael Perham
